Severe Storm Drives Across Great Plains

By The Associated Press
Tornado winds, thunderstorms blinding dust and swirling snow drove across the Great Plains as autumn's most severe storm moved eastward into the Mississippi Valley today.

The storm center whirled out of the Rocky Mountains into northern Kansas Sunday.

South of the front, gusty winds from the Gulf of Mexico sent the mercury to record heights for the season. Shirt-sleeved citizens enjoyed Sunday outings.

As the front advanced, icy winds from the northwest, lashed temperatures and drove blinding snow from Colorado into Nebraska and northwest Kansas. Snow depths had reached four inches early today.

The sharp contrast kicked up severe thunderstorms in Kansas, where a tornado flicked across the edge of Concordia, a town of 7,000.

No Indication That South Electors Will Pool Votes to Prevent Kennedy Election

Castro Thinks Kennedy to Be Softer

By ROBERT BERRELEZ

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro

hinted today he expects a softer policy toward Cuba when John F. Kennedy becomes president. The bearded prime minister's rambling speech was punctuated by noise bombs exploding in an unprecedented show of force by his enemies within Cuba.

In a 2 1/2 hour speech at Havana University, Castro also accused Roman Catholic priests of taking money from sugar companies to preach against his revolution, and suggested a new policy for the state-run sugar industry may be in the works. It may be aimed at flooding world markets and eventually giving Cuba more control over prices.

Two small noise bombs went off while Castro spoke. The second brought him to his angriest pitch. Shouts of "pardon!" (to the execution wall) went up from the audience.

"Don't worry. Don't worry," Castro admonished the crowd. "Those bombs are not set off by peasants, by the humble. They are set off by those who kneel before foreign interests, by those who would like to see bloodshed in the country."

Despite heavy police concentrations around the university, two bombs also went off while Castro was waiting to speak. Altogether 19 explosions were counted throughout the city and its suburbs as Castro's opposition staged its biggest noise bombing since Castro gained power almost two years ago. Sporadic bombings have become an almost nightly occurrence in Havana.

Castro was as caustic as usual in his criticism of the United States. But he appeared to open the door slightly for a conciliatory move by Kennedy, although he indicated Cuba would not take the initiative in any fence mending.

"We will get together and map our sugar policy and then we will see what they will do," Castro said, referring to the new administration.

Series of Local Burglaries

A series of burglaries were reported to City Police here during the Thanksgiving holiday week-end.

Dixie Drive-In was entered and meat valued at about $27 was stolen. The burglars got 20 lbs. of meat, 20 packages of cigarettes, 90 packages of gum and cold drinks.

From $3 to $5 was taken from the High School Home Ec. Cottage along with a fountain pen and a compact.

The Gulf-Bulk Plant was entered and a couple of cans taken by the thieves. James Cleaners was entered but so far as could be determined nothing was missing.

Death Toll on Holiday Reaches 588

By The Associated Press

Traffic 430
Fires 49
Miscellaneous 109
Total 588

Violent accidents claimed a staggering toll of lives over the extended Thanksgiving holiday weekend and, as expected, traffic deaths led the grim total.

The final figures from across the nation were not complete. But with the count ended at midnight (local time) Sunday, covering a period of 102 hours from 6 p.m. Wednesday, the latest figures showed: 430 killed in traffic accidents; 49 perished in fires and 109 lost their lives in miscellaneous (type) accidents. The over-all total was 588, an average of nearly six per hour.

Highway deaths took a sharp rise in the final hours of the four-day holiday, as highways were jammed with Sunday drivers and other thousands returning home from holiday trips. Generally fair weather prevailed in most of the country but rain, snow and fog added to the driving hazards in some sections.

Belated reports may boost the traffic death toll above the 445 killed on the highways during last year's four-day Thanksgiving holiday weekend. However, this year's toll in fires and other kinds of accidents apparently will run below last year's 70 fire deaths and 135 in miscellaneous mishaps.

This year's traffic death toll was close to the 433 total reported in an Associated Press survey covering the 102-hour period between 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 9, and midnight Sunday, Nov. 13. The AP's count also showed 69 fire deaths and 144 in other accidents for an over-all total of 646.

No pre-holiday estimate of the traffic deaths was made by the National Safety Council, which said travel on the Thanksgiving weekend is not as heavy as on other major holidays during the year. However, the NSC did estimate that 460 persons could die on the highways during a four-day weekend at this time of year.

The record death toll for a four-day holiday period is 884, set in the Christmas period of 1956. Included were 707 deaths on the highways.

California led the nation in traffic fatalities over the weekend, with at least 50. Five other states, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas, each reported 20 or more traffic deaths.

In North Carolina, the state's 14 electoral votes are safely in the Kennedy fold. There has been no talk of joining any anti-Kennedy coalition.

Alabama elected five electors pledged to the party nominee and six independents who can vote for anyone they choose. The six have not announced a choice.

Florida, Tennessee and Virginia went Republican. Their electors will vote for Richard M. Nixon.

The Mississippi electors have not announced whom they will support but indicated it would be a Southern Democrat. The unpledged group won over a loyalist slate after the state party committee listed both on the ballot.

Education and Arms Goal of Eisenhower

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's commission on national goals has outlined a program for America in the 1960s that would cost billions of dollars more of government spending.

This could mean a tax increase, the commission of 11 distinguished Americans concluded in a 30-page report made public by the White House Sunday. A copy was sent to President-elect John F. Kennedy.

Specifically, the commission urged the nation to arm adequately, no matter what the cost and to spend billions of dollars more on education, foreign aid, research and cities.

The national goals proposed by the commission also included the elimination of racial segregation, the reduction of unemployment, and a foreign policy that preserves the United Nations while remaining ready to negotiate with the Soviet Union on any reasonable basis.

The commission and its report stem from President Eisenhower's State of the Union message almost two years ago. In it, the President said the nation should define its national purpose and goals.

The report now serves as a legacy from the Eisenhower administration to the incoming Kennedy administration. In several respects, the recommendations resemble the "New Frontiers" program outlined by Kennedy in his campaign.

Eisenhower created the commission last January, naming Dr. Henry M. Wriston as chairman. Dr. Wriston is president-emeritus of Brown University and president of the American Assembly, an educational institution.

Frank Pace Jr., chairman of General Dynamics Corp., and a former secretary of the army, is vice chairman.

Members of the commission did not agree on all goals. Among them, AFL-CIO President George Meany dissented from several recommendations.

Integration Protest Brings Nearly 100% Boycott at N. Orleans

Rioting in Venezuela Kills Three

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK

CARACAS, Venezuela — Violent leftist rioting forced the Cabinet of President Romulo Betancourt into emergency session today to deal with political and economic unrest.

National Guard troops patrolled the capital city after three days of rioting in which three persons were killed and more than 100 wounded.

The outbreak was attributed to Betancourt's left-wing opponents some of them recently defected from his moderate Socialist coalition to attack him in anti-American tones similar to the line of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Despite Betancourt's two-years in power trying to spread the wealth of this oil-rich country more evenly, there was widespread pessimism about the outlook in this new crisis.

High schools and normal schools were closed today for the second time in a month.

Betancourt asked Ramon J. Velasquez, secretary-general of the presidency and one of his closest advisers, to take over the education ministry in the absence of his chief, Rafael Pizani, who is in the United States for medical treatment.

The moderate government forces of Betancourt's Democratic Action party and the Christian Socialists now are opposed by the left-wing Democratic Republican Union (URD), which quit the government coalition 10 days ago, as well as Communists and the Movement of the Revolutionary Left, a Marxist offshoot of Betancourt's party.

Betancourt called on troops to quell last month's riots, and this was one reason the URD quit the coalition. Its leaders called the move "repression."

Elsewhere in the Caribbean, unrest was spotted in Haiti and Colombia.

In Haiti, now in its sixth day of martial law after a student strike against President Francois Duvalier's government, the president shook up the army general staff and the administrative council of the National Bank.

Last week Duvalier expelled the Roman Catholic archbishop of Haiti and accused him of supporting a student strike the government claimed was backed by Communists.

In Colombia, 30,000 bank workers called a strike for "social liberation." The bank workers have struck twice before this year. This time the union is demanding that the banks withdraw a Supreme Court appeal against an arbitration award that favored the workers. The strike was denounced by President Alberto Lleras Camargo, and troops were stationed around the bank.

Cubans talk openly and privately against his rule, from Havana eastward to Santiago, Cuba's second largest city and capital of Oriente province, where the Castro revolution was born.

Most complaints are based on two factors — economic hardship and communism.

In Santiago, a longshoreman whose union had just been told by the government that workers no longer will receive overtime pay, told this correspondent:

"We have been asked to pull in our belts, to work more and eat less. We can do that, but I won't work for the communists and my companions won't either."

A businessman who has lived in Santiago all his life and now watches militiamen giving orders in the establishment he built, declared:

"You could expect people of my class to oppose Castro and his regime even though I and many like me helped it grow. But here in Santiago it is the little people who are feeling the pressure as much or more than we are."

"I give Castro six months more. Then not even his Communist-armed militia and his army of informants can control a hungry people."

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — While students from two nearby integrated public schools flocked to nearly segregated schools today in a boycott nearly 100 per cent complete.

Three Negro girls entered McDonogh No. 19, one of the two integrated schools — at 8:45 a.m. (CST) today. One woman among the 100 or so white spectators yelled:

"You've got the whole school to yourself now."

The city's public schools reopened after a week's vacation due to a teachers' convention. But there appeared to be no letup in objections to school integration as ordered by a federal judge.

President Armand Davis of the education cooperative at the William Frantz school — where one Negro girl attends the first grade — said buses took 104 Frantz students to schools in neighboring St. Bernard Parish (county).

The city tensely waited for the ruling of a three-judge federal tribunal, considering a request to suspend temporarily the integration order pending the settlement of state and federal differences. Their opinion was expected today.

Chartered buses took the boycotting white children to schools in St. Bernard Parish.

"There were no incidents at either school," Davis said collections for private schools for Frantz and McDonogh No. 19 students over the weekend totaled "a little over $2,000."

U.S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright ordered integration of first grades Nov. 14.

"The panel considering the school board's petition includes Judge Richard T. Rives, chief judge of the U.S. 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, U.S. Dist. Judge J. Horbort Christensen, and Wright."

The panel also had before it a state suit asking that all school integration orders be tossed out, a federal petition that the state be permanently restrained from interfering with public school administration.

The conflict left a legal tangle that caused New Orleans public school teachers to miss last Wednesday's monthly payday. The school board said the legislature had stripped it of funds to meet the $2,525,000 payroll.

The legislature then appropriated funds, and teachers were told they would begin receiving their paychecks today. Then, Sunday night, House Speaker J. Thomas Jewell said it would be Wednesday before the payroll could be processed.

Most of the 90,000 public school pupils who had a week-long holiday last week because of teachers' state-wide meetings and the Thanksgiving holiday, were expected back in school today.

CHAPTER V

Gerry was only slightly reassured to see Janet's warm, welcoming smile.

"Hi," Janet said. "I think you're both awfully nice to come over. I'm sorry I had to bother you."

"It's no bother," Cliff said, shutting the front door behind him and handing his jacket to Janet.

"Mrs. Hamilton," Gerry burst out. "I've been meaning to call you. I've felt so terrible about what I said at the trial."

"Please don't worry, Gerry," Janet said. "It's all over and done with."

She had felt so confident calling Cliff this afternoon. Now that he was here, the things she had meant to say to him seemed weak.

"It's hard to say what's on my mind," she confessed.

"We're in no hurry," Cliff answered, smiling.

himself away. If he had committed the murder, I know he wouldn't take such pains to convince me of his innocence.

"I think he might," Cliff said. "If he admired you, it would be important to have you believe he was innocent, whatever anyone else thought."

"No, No, Cliff. I know him better than that," her vehemence forced him to look at her. "He wouldn't have done it in such a way that he was sure to be found out," Janet said. "He couldn't have done it in a fit of rage because I meant planning far enough ahead to take the gun."

"Well, that sounds logical," Mrs. Hamilton, and I don't blame you for trying, but the fact remains that nobody else wanted to see Mrs. Whiting dead."

"The police thought they had such a good suspect they never looked for anyone else."

Janet began to feel desperate. "I don't think you ought to feel as if they nailed him without giving him a chance," she said.

"He was a lone wolf, but he still had friends. Some people from the school where he taught went to the cops and offered to be character witnesses. And they went to his lawyer. I mean, he isn't just a crumb. He had some pull with fairly important people. You mustn't think that he was all by himself all through the trial."

"There was a long silence while Janet sat deep in thought. Cliff tapped cigarette ashes steadily into an ash tray at his elbow. Gerry looked anxiously from one to the other.

Finally, Janet said, "I have other reasons, too, for believing what he didn't murder his wife."

"Mrs. Hamilton, if you have evidence you haven't given, you'd certainly better tell it."

Janet felt her face burning. She did not look up as she added, "There's something I didn't tell you when you came over the day man who's confessed to about half the murders in the state. He wasn't even in White Plains that night."

She described the incident in detail while Cliff listened. The amusement gleamed in his face. "And the dog was growling at someone," she added.

"Why didn't you tell me about it then—the day I was here?"

"I told you how Jason's fingerprints happened to be on the gun. My volunteering information then did more harm than good."

He looked abashed. "Where is that bow and the arrows now?"

"I destroyed the arrows, of course. The bow is in the attic."

"It was probably a neighborhood kid aiming at the dog," Mrs. Lockhart is always complaining about the kids breaking her greenhouse windows—arrows, BB guns, rocks."

He spread his hands in a gesture of resignation. "What do you want me to do, Mrs. Hamilton?"

"Then you mean you think Jason might be innocent?" Janet could not contain her excitement.

"No, I believe he did it. But I'll still try to help you any way I can."

"I don't like to have it that way, Cliff."

"It can't be any other way."

derer, get the proof and collar him now."

"Yes, I know," she said independently.

"But you could try, Cliff," Gerry pleaded.

Elsewhere in Kansas, tornado winds tipped apart buildings on four farms southeast of Wichita.

In New Mexico, ice and snow made roads hazardous in the northern sections and choking dust cut visibility to five miles in other areas.

The belt of heavy snow extended from northeast Colorado across southwestern Nebraska. Four inches were reported at Akron, Colo., and Chadron, Neb., three inches at Scottsbluff, Neb. Driven by winds up to 40 m.p.h., the snow cut visibility to zero.

Much colder air was moving out of the north where Sunday's highs in North Dakota were around 12 degrees above zero.

Kansas City and St. Louis had highs of 71, records for the date.

Palmer All Time PGA Money Winner

MOBILE, Ala. — Arnold Palmer now is the top all-time money winner on the PGA tournament tour for a single year. Last objective he has long wished to achieve.

The 34-year-old shot maker from Libonier, Pa., accomplished the cherished ambition Sunday by taking the Mobile Open Golf Tour ament, with one of his fabulous finishes just as he did the Masters and the Pensacola Open earlier this year.

The Mobile victory was worth $2,000. This brought his earnings on the official tournament circuit to $73,719 and surpassed the $72,835.83 figure set by Ted Kroll of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., in 1950.

In all, Palmer played in 25 tournaments this year. He won 4 of them and finished among the top five players 16 times. Sam Snead set the PGA circuit record in 1950 when he took nine tournaments.

The Arkansas Penitentiary System produces about twice as much cotton and rice per acre as the average Arkansas farm.

Mother, 3 Children Die in Fire

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Deaths of a young mother and her three small children in a fire Saturday night boosted Arkansas' Thanksgiving holiday death toll to 12.

A total of 19 persons died violently during the week ended at midnight Sunday.

Mrs. Franklin Moore and her children — Paim, 3, Charley, 18 months and James, 7 months — were fatally burned in a fire which destroyed their frame home at Burdette, 10 miles southwest of Blytheville. The children perished in the flames. Mrs. Moore died Sunday in an Osceola hospital.

Coroner Jim Stovall said the fire started when her husband, Franklin Moore, a 25-year-old farmer, tried to start a fire in a coal stove using tractor fuel. The stove blew up, Stovall said.

Moore was in serious condition in an Osceola hospital with burn on his hands, arms and face. Charlotte Jones, 10, a niece who was spending the night with the family, escaped with minor burns and was in a Blytheville hospital.

The fire and a two-truck collision Saturday, which killed three men were responsible for most of the holiday deaths. A total of six persons died in traffic accidents; five burned to death and one was drowned during the holiday period.

For the week, traffic accidents claimed 11 lives, fires claimed five, one person drowned, one died in an industrial accident and one was accidentally shot to death.

Arkansas has a larger variety of basic minerals than any area of similar size in the world.

What Every Girl Should Know

HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:

We are five girls who wonder why girls who believe in necking and petting are the ones who have the dates.

We are popular in school and when we took dancing lessons had plenty of partners but when it's time for a school dance — no dates!

One of us had a date when she was 15 but the boy wanted her to neck and pet. She didn't want to. She hasn't had a date since and is going on 17. Another girl who runs around with us believes in necking and petting and gets dates all the time. We never said anything to her about this letter to you, or about her bad reputation. Should we? —Five Girls

Dear Girls: Charm, not necking and petting, is the key to popularity. The dictionary gives the rather quaint but delightful definition of "magic power." Those possessed with it can "bewitch and enchant." To say a girl has "personality" is to say she has "charm."

James Barrie, the English playwright, defined charm as, "A sort of bloom on a woman. If you have it, you don't need anything else; and if you don't have it, it doesn't much matter what else you have."

If a girl is bright, amusing, friendly, kind, discriminating and a listener as well as a talker, she is charming. Acquire any one of these attributes and you will be the town's most popular girl. Forget the girl with the bad reputation. Maybe your hollower-than-thou attitude has been a cause of your dateless lives. Show this column to your mothers.

Dear Helen:

My mother is a wonderful person. She has been active in church work most of her life. Partly through her efforts, our new church was built. I love her very much but lately she has begun to feel sorry for herself, saying we never help around the house and so forth. When we do help her she criticizes us.

I know it is my duty to help my parents but sometimes I have other things that are just as important to do. I think mother is too worried about this church work and fast becoming a nervous wreck. I want to help her but don't know how. —Worried

Dear Worried: When you say, "We help her," do you mean the family helps? If so, you might all chip in and give your mother a holiday. Overwork, even in as worthy a cause as raising money for a new church, can cause last nerves. From what you say your mother needs a vacation. See that she has a whirl. It would be a unrefined blessing: health for her, preventive medicine and peace of mind for the family. A financial sacrifice may be involved, but it's worth the price.

Dear Helen:

I will be 21 soon. For my birthday my boy friend wants to give me his family's set of rings. I object because they are old and out of style. I would like a different set even though they need not be expensive. Do you think I am unfair? —Wondering

Dear Wondering: It all depends upon the motives back of the giving and receiving. If your friend wants you to have his family rings for sentiment's sake, then you are indeed callous and lacking in sentiment. Nothing is more precious than heirlooms to which sentiment is attached. But if your boy friend is penny pinching, then that is something else and you should think twice before marrying him.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflet available. Write for "On Being Popular."

Porkers Claim League Title, to Meet Duke

FAVETTESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles sat out one Saturday. And it was a good feeling.

The young man by his radio to hear Baylor beat Rice 12-7 and give the Arkansas Razorbacks the undisputed Southwest Conference championship.

And he reached over and picked up the telephone to learn the Hogs will meet Duke University Jan. 2 in the Cotton Bowl.

"Well, I remember this Saturday for a long time," he said. "It's sure nice to sit out."

The Razorbacks took their open date this year at the end of the season. Broyles said he likes it that way, wishes he could do it every year.

Duke had an open date as it opened the Cotton Bowl bid, too, but the Blue Devils will wind up their regular season in Los Angeles Saturday against UCLA.

How they fare in that game will mean a lot toward their Cotton Bowl taring. Duke is ranked 11th nationally and Arkansas is placed sixth in the latest Associated Press poll.

Duke coach Bill Murray, a highly respected veteran said, the situation is a just reward for the vim, vigor and enthusiasm of his team showed this season. A year ago Duke lost 50-0 to North Carolina in a nationally televised game. It was Duke's most one-sided defeat and gave the team a 4-6 record, its poorest in 30 years.

Since then the Blue Devils have pulled themselves up in boot strap and have a 7-2 chart this year, including a victory over Navy.

Broyles said he was sorry Rice had to lose to Baylor to give Arkansas the clear championship.

"Oh, I wanted us to win it all," he said. "But I was pulling for a tie between Rice and Baylor. I didn't want them to lose any of their bowl glamor."

Rice could have tied Arkansas in the title by beating Baylor.

Broyles said he was glad Rice got the Sugar Bowl bid anyway. "I'm especially proud of our conference," he said. "There wasn't a touchdown difference in the first four teams, and I'm glad they're all going to bowls."

Duke's appearance in the Cotton Bowl will give the Blue Devils a complete four of the top four New Year's Day bowl games. They've played in the other three. Duke beat Navy this year 19-10 after trailing 10-0 at halftime. The Blue Devils also beat South Carolina State 17-13, Clemson 21-6, Georgia Tech 6-0, and Wake Forest 34-7. Michigan beat the

Colts Upset by 49ers in Pro Ranks

By MIKE RATHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Beaten by a fast, quick-moving rookie, the Baltimore Colts today were trying to locate the malfunctioning machinery that threatens to start their slide from a third consecutive National Football League championship.

The Philadelphia Eagles began preparations for a possible title challenge Sunday night after Sunday's 31-23 victory over the New York Giants virtually put a lock on their first Eastern Conference crown since 1949.

With three games to go, the Eagles (8-1) are 2½ games ahead of the Giants and Cleveland Browns.

Duke coach Bill Murray, a highly respected veteran said, the situation is a just reward for the vim, vigor and enthusiasm of his team showed this season. A year ago Duke lost 50-0 to North Carolina in a nationally televised game. It was Duke's most one-sided defeat and gave the team a 4-6 record, its poorest in 30 years.

Chargers Go Nearer AL Grid Title

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American Football League's Los Angeles Chargers can take the Western Division title next Sunday if they stay on their patented recovery formula.

The Chargers were belted a week ago by Buffalo 23-3, which caused coach Sid Gillman to point out that "the last time we were beaten badly we came back to win four straight and take the lead."

Sure enough, back they came Sunday, beating Oakland 52-28 to drop the Raiders into a second place tie with Dallas. The Chargers and Raiders go at it again next week, and a Los Angeles victory would insure at least a tie and eliminate Oakland. A victory, plus a Dallas defeat by Houston, would clinch matters.

Buffalo blew a 24-point lead in the fourth quarter and were held to a 38-38 tie by the Denver Broncos. No other games were scheduled.

Old reliable Jack Kemp was the man who cranked up the Chargers and sent them on their way. He tossed scoring passes of 69 yards to Don Norton and 63 to Paul Lowe.

Lowe gained 149 yards from scrimmage and Kemp's scoring losses were his 10th and 11th of the season.

Gene Mingo's 15-yard field goal in the final four seconds provided Denver with its tie, but some fancy passing by quarterback Frank Tripucka saved a lot of leg work. Trip hit his favorite target, Lionel Taylor, with three successive TD passes that sliced down a 38-14 Buffalo lead.

Taylor, hauled in aeriels of 80, 25 and 35 yards.

Bill Atkins kicked field goals of 20, 13 and 31 yards while Elbert Dupenion's twisting, dodging 76 run was the highlight of Buffalo's attack, which seemingly had the game tucked away after a 21-point third period.

In the National League, San Francisco upset Baltimore 30-22, Philadelphia defeated New York 31-23, Pittsburgh beat Washington 22-10, Chicago handed Dallas its 10th loss, 17-7 and Cleveland St. Louis tied 17-17.

Knicks Win Last 2 Cage Outings

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Better late than never.

That's what the New York Knickerbockers and Philadelphia Warriors are probably saying today.

The Knickerbockers, cellar dwellers in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association, have won their last two after managing only two victories in their first 17 games.

Sunday night, New York frittered away an 11-point halftime lead but recovered to beat Cincinnati 122-118 in overtime. Willie Naulls sank six points and Richie Guerin five in the extra period. Oscar Robertson had 42 points for the Royals.

Philadelphia was almost two hours late in arriving for its game with the Lakers in Los Angeles. But plane trouble didn't keep Will Chamberlain from propelling the Warriors to a 113-106 victory, scoring 41 points.

The Warriors, who moved to within a half game of Boston, the Eastern Division leader, got a clutch basket from Guy Rodgers with two minutes remaining after Los Angeles had closed a 10-point gap to a single point.

Jim Krebs, had 25 points for the Lakers. Elgin Baylor, the Los Angeles ace, had 22.

Their triumphs wound up successful week-ends for the Knicks and Warriors. New York beat Detroit 127-119 and Philadelphia trounced Cincinnati 138-108 Saturday. In other Saturday games, St. Louis beat Los Angeles 126-113 and Boston walloped Syracuse 129-110.

Browns, who lost an opportunity to take over the runner-up spot when they were tied 17-17 by the improving Cardinals.

The Colts were upset by San Francisco 30-22 when rookie end, Dec Mackey took a 1-yard pass from the third-string quarterback Bobby Waters, then laterally to R. C. Owens for a 41-year touchdown play with only a minute and a half remaining.

The loss left Baltimore (6-3) with a slim half-game edge over the onrushing Chicago Bears. The Bears whipped winless Dallas 17-7 for a 5-3 record and kept a slight lead over idle Green Bay and the 49ers, tied for third with 5-4 marks.

Pittsburgh defeated Washington 22-10 in the only other game scheduled. Detroit, which beat the Packers Thanksgiving Day, also was idle and Los Angeles drew a bye.

Johnny Unitas threw three touchdown strikes for the Colts—10 yards to Ray Berry, 6 to Alex Hawkins and 65 to Leiny Moore—but the Baltimore quarterback had five aeriels intercepted and lost the ball once on a fumble.

Three Major Candidates for National Title

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

With all the major bowls filled, the only question remaining on the college football front today was:

Who is the national champion? There are three major candidates.

Minnesota. The Gophers climbed all the way from the Big Ten basement last year to a tie with Iowa for the title this season. They wound up with an 8-1 record and were the only team to play at Iowa during the season. They were picked to oppose Washington in the Rose Bowl and were selected No. 1 in last week's Associated Press poll.

The Hawkeyes finished just seven points behind Minnesota in last week's poll. They also had an 8-1 record and permitted only Minnesota and Wisconsin to score more than one touchdown. In only one game (against Minnesota) did they score less than three touchdowns.

Mississippi. The Rebels wound up their season last Saturday with solid 35-0 conquest over Mississippi State. They finished behind Minnesota and Iowa in last week's poll but wound up the season as the only team in the top 10 that managed to escape defeat. Their season record was 9-0. The tie was a 6-6 standoff with Louisiana State.

Of the three Iowa is the only

Africans and Asians Leery of Red Plan

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. - Asian and African nations, suspicious of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's plan to end all colonialism at once, came up today with their own proposal for an end to foreign control of territories.

The clash promised to highlight a General Assembly debate on colonialism unless the Asian-African representatives change their proposal to meet the Soviets' at least halfway.

The Soviet Union has been wooing the newly independent nations of Asia and Africa since Khrushchev visited the assembly during its opening weeks. The Soviet delegation asked for the debate so it could sound off against colonialism in terms it hoped the new nations wanted to hear.

Khrushchev, in a declaration to the assembly Sept. 23, sought independence for all colonies "forthwith."

The 46-nation Asian-African group prepared a resolution calling for "immediate steps" in transfer power to colonies from their former rulers, not quite the same as having the colonies shook off foreign rule at once.

Among the colonies listed by the Soviets were Puerto Rico, an island commonwealth associated with the United States; Okinawa, the Japanese island now ruled by the United States because it is the site of a big Far Eastern base, and Formosa, seat of President Chiang Kai-Shek's U. S.-supported Chinese Nationalist regime.

SWC Teams to Get Big Bowl Take

DALLAS (AP) — Arkansas, Texas, Rice and Baylor will play in bowl games and get $100,750 in the case of Arkansas and $97,750 in the case of Texas, Rice and Baylor.

They'll have to work some for their money, however. The Southwest Conference schools that stay at home and watch the games on television will receive $37,750.

The Southwest Conference will reap its richest harvest from bowl games this time, pulling down $545,000 before any splitting is done.

Arkansas meets Duke in the Cotton Bowl, Rice plays Mississippi in the Sugar Bowl, Baylor takes on Florida in the Gator Bowl and Texas tackles Alabama in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

The Southwest Conference allows each bowl team to keep $100,000 of its take and give the remainder to the league for distribution among the members. The bowl team shares along with the other seven in the remainder.
